POLITICAL NEWS AND NOTES

Prince Kuhio, Delegate to Congress, will begin his political campaign on the Island of Hawaii, according to his friends. He will leave in the Matson liner Wilhelmnia, which sails tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Kuhio, when seen, said that he does not want to leave the investigation now conducted by Secretary Fisher of the Interior, unfinished. It is his intention, he added, to remain in Honolulu until Secretary Fisher has finished the work which brought him to Hawaii.

"I do not want to leave the investigation unfinished for the purpose of making my political campaign on Hawaii or any other place," said Kuhio.
"I want to remain in Honolulu as long as the investigation now conducted by Secretary Fisher is in progress," continued the Delegate. "Of course, after his work is through, I will start out on my political tour on Hawaii, Maui and Kauai. I desire to close my campaign right here in Honolulu before the election takes place."

Bananas and poi will be the issue to be brought out by the Democrats against the Republican administration, according to the Republican runners.

Throughout the different precincts of the Fourth and Fifth districts, the Democratic runners are advising the electorate to vote against the Republican candidates who are seeking their support in the coming campaign.
These runners, according to reports, are not only telling the Hawaiians that the Republican administration caused them to go hungry during the closing of the poi shops and the wholesale destruction of the banana trees by order of the Territorial Board of Health, but are advising them to put the Democrats in power. That the action of the health authorities in so ordering the poi shops to be closed and banana trees cut down, was subsequently severely criticized by the Supreme Court, is an added argument used.

Believing that the truth must be maintained, even in politics, the Home Rulers at the county convention held last night in the Nottley Hall, refused to endorse the Republican or Democratic candidates for offices, without receiving requests from them for endorsement.

Wm. Mossman, chairman of the county committee of the Home Rule party, stated on the floor of the hall last night that it was a bad policy for the Home Rulers to endorse other candidates for office without their personal requests, either verbally or in writing. During the discussion of the entire matter, D. Kalauokalani, Sr., taking opposite views to those of Mossman, said that there was no necessity of requiring the candidates on the other parties to file requests for endorsement. But Mossman held his ground firmly until he was focused by the entire convention.

Y. W. C. A. OPENS ITS WORK FOR SEASON WITH RUSH

Physical Culture Class Formed and Others Are Being Arranged for Year

Things up at the Y. W. C. A. started off with a bang last night and kept it up until the last class was through.
A lunch was served in the dining-room from 5 until 6 and was well patronized by both the members and their friends. The first class in the gymnasium, under Miss Tupper, the physical director, started at 6 o'clock and lasted until 7, and the next class was from 7:15 until 8:15.
The enrollment for both classes being twenty-two. This number was considered very good as a beginning. The interest taken in the classes by the members was great. Tomorrow, Miss Tupper will hold a basketball class, which will begin at 3:30 in the afternoon.

Other classes are rapidly forming.
The millinery class under the direction of Mrs. Milton will meet on next Friday evening. The domestic science class will meet either Tuesday or Wednesday evening. The commercial

PROGRESSIVE PARTY REGARDED AS JOKE

Sarcastic Speech of Chairman at Connecticut Democratic Convention

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 11.—That the county grand jury would begin an investigation today of allegations of fraud here at the state primary election, September 3, was information obtained tonight from trustworthy sources.

It was alleged that members of the Progressive party who had acted as election officials in approximately 200 city and county precincts had decorated the voting booths with pictures of Theodore Roosevelt and Governor Hiram W. Johnson of California, and had given out marked ballots to voters after they had entered the booths.

It was understood that Byron C.
Hanna, deputy district attorney, had subpoenaed several hundred witnesses and that an extensive probe would be begun tomorrow.

It was stated that some of the election officials had declared they had received the pictures of Roosevelt and Johnson and the marked ballots with the other election material, and had thought they were for the use to which they were alleged to have put them.

Some people seem to think that the injunction, "Tell the truth," means to say something disagreeable about somebody.

This morning Mossman said that Captain Parker and others who were formerly assured of their support by the Home Rulers, will have to file applications with him in order to get the endorsement.

Captain Parker, so far, has not said anything, and it is believed that he will not file application with the Home Rulers to endorse him for the office of Sheriff.

Over in the Fifth district the members of the Hui Unione and their friends are urging Noa W. Aluli, attorney at law, to run for senator on an independent ticket. Aluli, is well known in his district, and the Hawai-ans are particularly interested to know whether he would accept the proposition, which his friends are preparing for the coming campaign.

Aluli, it must be remembered, ran for senator on the Democratic ticket, but when his name was sprung in the Democratic convention, it was turned down by the delegates from the Fifth district. On that account it is expected that he will not consider the candidacy for senatorial honor again.

"I have been approached by the members of the Hui Unione, of which I am a member, to run as an independent candidate for senator in the Fifth district," said Aluli yesterday.
"But as yet I have not accepted the proposition."

"It seems to me," continued he,
"that it is not wise for me at this time to accept the nomination for senator with a view to running as an independent candidate. In my opinion, it would spoil my chances in the future, should I run again for senatorial honor."

Some of the leaders of the Hui Unione are working hard among the members with a view to getting their endorsement for Aluli to run independently. George K. Ka-ne, president of the hui said that personally he was willing to work for the election of Aluli in November.

"I am a Link Man," said Kane, as he pointed at Link's button, pinned on his coat. "I don't like to support Prince Kuhio, because he is a Republican and I am a Democrat."

"Well, why do you support Cohen, a Republican, who is seeking election for senator?"

"Well, that is a different thing," he concluded.

"I understand," said Joel Cohen this morning, "that my opponents are planning to use the argument with the Hawaiians that 'Joel Cohen is a Jew and cannot make laws for his own country, so why should he help in making them for Hawaii?' I only hope they do start something like that.
If won't be difficult for me to show that the Jews have no country but the Hawaiians have and that the Hawai-ans are not at the present time making laws for their own country."

SHOP-TRAINED BOY STAYS AT BOTTOM

Test Shows That Schooled Man Is Worth Nineteen Dollars
More Than Unschooled

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 20.— Statistics show that a man of 25 who was trained in his youth in a technical school is worth $19 a week more to his employer than a man of the same age, but without the school training.

A communication received by the State Superintendent of public instruction from the United States Commissioner of Education presents these figures, as follows:

"Two boys, aged 14, are both interested in mechanics. One goes into the shops; the other into a technical school. The boy in the shops starts at $4 a week and by the time he is 18 years old, he is getting $7. At that age the other boy is leaving school and starting work at $10 a week. At 20 the shop-trained young fellow is getting $9.50 and the technical graduate $15; at 22 years the former's wages is $11.50 and the latter's $20, and by the time they are both 25 years old the shop worker finds $12.75 in his pay envelope, while the technically trained man draws a salary of $31. These figures are based on a study of 2909 actual workers."

NEW MASONIC LAW WILL BAR LIQUORMEN

Proposed Amendment to Come Before Grand Lodge
This Month

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 24.— Men who engage in the sale of liquor will be barred from membership in the Masonic fraternity, if a proposed amendment to the laws of the order is adopted by the Grand Lodge, which meets in Los Angeles on October 9.
The rule is aimed particularly at those who engage in the retailing of liquor or the saloon business. An exception is made where the sale of liquor is made in connection with a hostelry.

Should the law be adopted, a section declares that any Mason, who after his affiliation engages in the sale of liquor, shall be deemed guilty of un-masonic conduct, and shall forfeit all rights and privileges of the order, including membership.

To Aid Charity Home.

The second matter of great moment to the fraternity is the report of a committee appointed last year to devise ways and means for extending the Widows and Orphans' Home at Decoto and the raising of an endowment of $1,000,000 to make the institution self sustaining and not dependent upon annual assessments upon the membership.

The lodges and citizens of Los Angeles are making elaborate preparations for the reception and entertainment of the Grand Lodge and delegates from every section of the State.

The Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star will also meet in Los Angeles during the same week.
Over 200 go from the bay communities to the session.

The local lodges of the Masonic order have completed arrangements for the trip to Los Angeles to attend this sixty-third annual communication of the Grand Lodge of California.

Special Train Chartered.

A special train has been chartered.
It will run over the Coast line, leaving Third and Townsend streets on Sunday morning, October 6, at 8 o'clock.
The twenty-four local lodges will be represented by 150 delegates, including past masters who are delegates by virtue of that office. Over 100 delegates from the bay counties will accompany the local delegation to Los Angeles. The sessions of the Grand Lodge will last four days, closing Friday, October 11, with election and installation of grand officers.

This will be the first and only time that the Grand Lodge will meet in Los Angeles, all Grand Lodge sessions being held according to the constitution at San Francisco, where they have been held for the past sixty-two years. Because of the construction of the new Masonic Temple here and the fact that the structure will not be completed next month, the Grand Lodge, by unanimous consent, voted last year to hold a session in Los Angeles. Next year the grand session will meet in the new $1,000,000 temple at Van Ness avenue, Oak and Market streets, which will be one of the finest in the country.

BUSINESS MEN BEGIN TRAINING TONIGHT

The business men's class in the gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A. starts off tonight and a bunch of good, lively men have enrolled for instruction.
The work will be largely rhythmic to begin with and the heavy apparatus will be left out of the business men's curriculum this year.

The class will start at four-thirty, and from that time on until five o'clock the work will consist of games not of the competitive order, but games that will benefit and amuse.
From five until five-thirty there will be calisthenic work, including all movable apparatus work, and will finish up with gymnastic dancing.

After this the men will go to the games hall and try their hands at baseball and basketball. This end of the work will be under the direction of Assistant Physical Director Johnson.

"The physical department of the association," said Physical Director Kilham this morning, "is going to develop good sportsmen—not sports; muscular men, not muscle-bound men; good fellowship, and not good fellows; service and not selfishness.
The men in the physical department are going to pull together and when there is need of service in any department we want to round out all around men."
